Smyrna Rugs

Among the most popular of all. The name is Oriental in sound, the patterns largely of Oriental effect, but the rugs are made in America,—especially in Philadelphia. There are several grades of these, but we carry only that which we know from twenty years' experience will give satisfaction. One of the strong points is the variety in these rugs; another is their cheapness and serviceability. Sizes run from 18x36 in., at $1.25, to 12x18 ft., at $80. There are some twenty sizes between, and some fifty patterns in each size. fifty patterns in each size.

Japanese Rugs

These are excellent reproductions of the best Oriental goods, at about a quarter of the price. They wear well. It takes a close examination to distinguish the difference between copy and original. We are making a third reduction on the present stock of Japanese Rugs, to make room for new goods. The occasion is important. Sizes from 26x45 inches, to 12x15 feet. Comparatively new, but strong in favor. Woven like a carpet, in breadths, and sewn into shape, but without the "mire" at the corners that you are accustomed to seeing. Very strong, heavy handsome rugs. Twenty-five patterns. Three sizes, 8x3 ft.,

Also called the "Florentines." An extra heavy, solidly woven rug, of high artistic merit and great decorative effect. The colorings are "esthetic," and the patterns varied and beautiful. Sizes, 8x9½ ft. to 9½x15 ft. Prices $14.75 to $26.50.

These rugs range in sizes from 18x36 in. to 3x6 ft. A very large assortment of these popular and reliable goods awaits your approval. Prices from $1.35 to $8.50.

Sounds Oriental, but made in Massachusetts. They are machine-made imitations of the good "old-fashioned" hand-made rugs of fifty years ago. Substantial things that wear quite as well as the rugs they copy. Sizes in regular stock run from 3x3 ft., at $4.50, to 4x7 ft., at $11.25. Any desired size can be made to size of the coloring.
